RESPONSE PROTOCOL FOR OFF-CAMPUS GATHERINGS EXCEEDING COVID-19 MANDATES

We expect that all ECU students and student organizations will adhere to all state mandates regarding gatherings.
As of February 26, 2021, the current mandate allows for gatherings of no more than 25 people inside and 50 people outside.

These criteria are based on Governor Cooper’s Executive Order #195 and may be revised as COVID-19 regulations change.
These criteria will be used as guidance and may vary based on the nature of an incident and/or past conduct history.

FIRST REPORT

Option 1

Up to 50 people in attendance or the report does not list the number of people present and/or the report does not indicate that 50 or more people were present.

and

Tenants and guests were cooperative

and

No additional Student Code of Conduct violations are detailed in the report

Response:

• OSRR will send a letter to students involved

• If a Greek Organization
  o Greek Life will contact chapter leaders, chapter advisors, and national office

• If any other Student Organization or Club Sport
  o OSRR will contact the appropriate campus administrators

• ECU Police will notify landlord

Option 2

Over 50 people in attendance

and/or

Tenants and guests were uncooperative

and/or

Additional Student Code of Conduct violations are detailed in the report

Response:

• Same response as listed in the second report section
SECOND REPORT

Regardless of how many people in attendance

- OSRR will investigate to determine if the incident involves individual and/or student organization conduct.
  - OSRR will initiate the student conduct process

- If a Greek Organization
  - If event at recognized chapter house or if it is determined the event was sponsored by a Greek organization a Cease & Desist order for social events will be issued
  - Greek Life will contact chapter leaders, chapter advisors, and national office
  - ECU Police and/or Student Affairs will visit off-campus residence to review expectation with residents
  - Greek Life/Student Affairs meets with organization leadership and members
  - Greek Life will send letter to parents

- If any other Student Organization or Club Sport
  - OSRR will contact the appropriate campus administrators
  - A Cease & Desist order for social events will be issued

- ECU Police will notify landlord
- ECU Police will consider filing charges

THIRD REPORT

Regardless of how many people in attendance

- OSRR will investigate to determine if the incident involves individual and/or student organization conduct.
  - OSRR will initiate the student conduct process

- If a Greek Organization
  - If event at recognized chapter house or if it is determined the event was sponsored by a Greek organization a Cease & Desist order for all chapter operations will be issued
  - Greek Life will contact chapter leaders, chapter advisors, and national office

- If any other Student Organization and Club Sport
  - OSRR will contact the appropriate campus administrators
  - A Cease & Desist for all organization operations will be issued

- ECU Police will notify landlord
- ECU Police will consider filing charges
POSSIBLE SANCTIONS FOR INDIVIDUALS AND/OR ORGANIZATIONS

Based on nature of the allegation(s) and prior conduct history

- Warning
- Probation
- Deferred Suspension
  - Suspension
  - Expulsion
- Educational Sanctions
  - Restitution